Promises made by the Dewan in the Representative Assembly-October 1924.

Sl. No.	Reference	Promise	Remarks
	Page 43 of the Dewan's address.	The draft scheme will be placed before this Assembly together with the main principles of the bill proposed to be introduced to amend the Local Boards and Panchayet Regn.
	" 44 "	The recommendations of the Conference have been generally accepted by Govt. in the scheme under consideration and the more important of the improvements to be given effect to will be the following:-- 1. The elected element in minor Municipal Councils will be raised from 1/3 to ⅔ the strenghh of the Council.. 2. Franchise will be extended to women to vote at election. 3. The Presidents of City & Town Municipal Councils will ordinarily be elected and the election will be by the general body of voters instead of by the Municipal Councils concerned. 4. Provision will be made for the inspection of Municipal offices by Dy.Commrs, the City Municipalities being excluded.
(3)	" 47 Motor Vehicles Rules	Will be finally taken up by Government during the current year.
(4)	" 51. Harnessing Gersoppa falls.	The scheme will be thoroughly investigated from all stand points during the current year and I hope to be able to make a statemen about it in this Assembly in the next gear's Dasara Session.
	Question No.45 Supplementary question. Whenever any information is disallowed the same should be intimated to the member concerned.	Will be noted for consideration Gabriel Tatar Motor

Election of the Presidents of Ml.Councils direct by the voters.	It will be tried in the case of any Ml.Council whose term may soon expire (By 1st Member) If it is found satisfactory in the Municipalities in which it is going to be introduced an attempt will be made to introduce it into other Municipalities (By 1st Member). We do not know what we will do. The matter will be duly considered (By 1st Member) One place will be kept vacant and after the President is elected he will be appointed to the Council. If the President elected is already in the Council a bye election will be made to fill up the vacancy. (1st Member)
7) Amendment of the Cr.Tribes Regn. The particular officer to be invested with power should be specially mentioned in the provision itself etc.	The suggestion will be noted (~~1st~~ Second Member)
8) Amendment of the Chief Court Regulation.	A general enabling clause will at this stage be withdrawn with the option of bringing it at the next session. It will be enough for the present if the power to transfer Munsiffs from one place to another is delegated (1st Member)
Sub. No.59. (9) Amendment of Sec.17 of the Mysore Mines Regulation.	Government have no information on this subject at present. They will obtain statistics as to the number of such cases within the past five years, how many of them were outside people and how many local ryots and then consider what remedy is necessary.
Sub.No.66. Cancellation of restriction imposed under rule 18 of the Mysore Arms Regn.1917.	The representation in the matter of empowering the patels ar village Panchayets to certify in respect of arms for issue of licenses, will be noted (Dewan)
Sub.No.68. Grant of T.A. and batta to patels in Criminal cases.	The question of giving batta to witnesses in crl.cases is under consideration and orders will be passed soon(Dewan)
Sub.No.69.Writing of copies on both sides of copying sheets.	Any how there is no objection to consult the Chief Court again in the matter (1st Member)
13) Sub.No.71. Maintenance of register of properties regarding which attachment proceedings are taken by Civil Courts.	We will consult the Chief Court about it (Dewan)
Sub.No.72. Grant of records to accused persons	We shall refer the matter to the Chief Court for disposal (Dewan)
Sub.No.73. Maintenance of index registers of parties in Civil & Crl. cases	We shall refer the matter to the Chief Court for disposal (Dewan)

(16) Sub.No.75. Grant of gun licenses	The present rules are quite sufficient and in regard to the grant of licenses in villages it will be enquired into(Dewan)
(17) Sub.No.77. Facilities for import of guns by licensed dealers.	It is not possible to do anything now. We have to correspond with the Residency. We will see what we can do in the matter.
(18) Sub.No.78. Execution proceedings in respect of decrees of village courts.	However I shall examine the question and pass necessary orders (Dewan)
(19) ~~Sub.No.68.Dead~~ Resolution No.6. Examination of the working of the Judl. Dept.	At the recent meeting of the Leg.Council Govt. promised the appointment of a Law's Delay Committee. Govt will adhere to that promise and take early steps to give effect to the same (1st Member)
(20) Resolution No.11 Flood Relief.	(1) Lands which have been eroed or otherwise rendered unfit for cultivation permanently. As regards the first class (the above) of lands separate orders will be passed
(21) Resolution No.14. re: help to be given from State funds for effecting public improvements	If the resolution is modified as below Govt. will have no objection to accept it. "This Assembly recommends that larger grants should be given from the State Funds for effecting public improvements(Dewan) The Assembly was agreeable to this and the resolution was accepted by Govt.
(22) Res.Nos.4 & 3. re: the transfer of Municipal employees & officers to other Municipalities.	The question is anyhow not free from doubt as to its smooth and efficient working. The Govt. will consider the resolution (1st Member
